

Human Curated Ground Truth (e.g.): Nucleation rate is highest at greater undercooling (larger driving force), but growth is diffusion-limited and slows if temperature is too low. At smaller undercooling, growth is faster, yet nucleation is lower, leading to competition between the two rates.